Performances & Scheduled Events

Attached is a November—January calendar & schedule of upcoming events. At this time I am not sure which group number we will be taking to each performance. This will depend on costumes, time allotted and who is ready! More details will be given to everyone as the specific event approaches. If someone is going to be unavailable during any of these dates please let me know ASAP. Performer's availability will also be a factor of who will be performing. You can write me a note or e-mail me @ jkcrouch@insightbb.com.
